ST. PETERS HIGH

NEW BRUNSWICK, NEW

SCHOOL

JERSEY

Most Reverend WILLIAM A. GRIFFIN, D.D.
Bishop of Trenton

WITH sincere admiration for his zeal in all activities to further Christ's Kingdom on earth, we, the Class of 1941, are happy and proud to dedicate this issue of The Cardinal to His Excellency, our beloved Bishop of Trenton, Most Reverend William A. Griffin,D.D. His fatherly interest in Catholic Action and his lively solicitude for his flock led him to visit St. Peter's during this last scholastic year. We are deeply grateful for that visit which brought us into a more personal relationship with our esteemed Bishop. So, in a spirit of faith in his leadership and of gratitude for his interest in us, and with deep affection, we offer ourselves to labor with him in his great work of gaining all souls to Christ.

REVEREND
RAYMOND J. H. KENNEDY, S.J.

To My Dear Friends of the Class of '41
Saint Peter's High School
New Brunswick, New Jersey.

May this page serve to be a reminder through the coming years of those three precious days which you and I spent together with Christ Our Lord during the Retreat in your Senior Year. If you look through your year-book frequently, it will seem then to carry back to you on the wings of memory all that He then meant to you, and all that you shall always mean to Him. May every day of your lives be spent in His Grace.

May His protecting Arms be ever about your shoulders.

May the smile of His countenance ever fall upon your souls.

May everyone of you, my dear friends , be no less truly HIS dear friends, now and forever !

Raymond J. H. Kennedy, SJ.

Missions

INTEREST in the missions has been greatly stimulated this year among the students of St. Peter's. In October, St. Peter's had the privilege of a visit from Sister Finan, one of our Sisters, who spent fifteen years in China. She was accompanied by Sister Ethelberta who gave an interesting lecture and displayed picture-slides portraying their labors among the Chinese. This talk was enthusiastically greeted by the students who strove to aid these missions by daily prayer and sacrifice.

Later, in February, Father Monaghan, Diocesan Director of the Propagation of the Faith, addressed the student body on the world's urgent need of missionaries. He stressed the fact that Bishop Griffin expressed a strong desire for every student to become a member of the Propagation of the Faith. The entire high school graciously endorsed this petition and we are proud to report that we have been enrolled one hundred per cent in this great Association.

The Queen's Daughters

THE Queen's Daughters, one of the units of the Sodality of Our Blessed Lady, is composed of the girls from St. Peter's parish, whose main purpose is to honor the Blessed Virgin.

Although great devotion is given to Our Lady during the year, particular homage is paid to her in May at a special ceremony. A senior girl, who has been most faithful to her duties as a daughter of Mary, is privileged to crown Our Lady as Queen of the Angels. The Little Office of the Blessed Virgin is recited weekly.

Each member cherishes the privilege to belong to this sodality, the duties of which help her to keep closer to Our Blessed Mother on earth and some day to be happy with her eternally.

Knights of Our Lady

LIVING up to the traditions set by the seniors of other years, our senior boys, forty-eight strong, volunteered to speak daily before the statue of Our Lady which stands on the school grounds. The boys were knighted on May 1, before the assembled high school. Each day the students recited the rosary, sang a hymn, and listened to a short talk on one of the virtues of Our Lady as given by Her knights.

EXAMS

CLASS CALENDAR

Sept. 4. School opens to us for the last time . . . Who doesn't wish he were a Freshman all over again?

Sept. 20. Played N. B. H. S. The victory is ours . . . MORALLY.

Sept. 28. Cards must have packed their fighting spirit in camphor before they ventured to Newport where they were defeated by LaSalle Academy.

Oct. 12. Columbus should have been twins . . . We relish holidays.

Oct. 23. Seniors put over "Face The Music" in a big way. Did you notice the talent scouts in the audience?

Oct. 27. Cardinals triumph over St. Cecelia's.

Nov. 1. All the Saints shouldn't be crowded into one holiday.

Nov. 17. Victory over P. A. Catholic means State Championship.

Nov. 21. Probably the thought of the feast at home was responsible for the Cards defeat by St. Francis of Brooklyn on Thanksgiving Day.

Dec. 1. Bishop Griffin visits us.

Dec. 19. Basketball season opens with a loss at the hands of Seton Hall after a tough fight.

Dec. 21. Christmas Holidays.

The Retreat

Jan. 7. We begin New Year right by making the Senior afternoon dance a big success.

Jan. 10. Cards lose to St. Mary's S. A. in extra period game.

Jan. 14. Senior Reception draws large number of alumni, making it a success.

Jan. 16. Father and Son Banquet is largely attended despite the fact it was the worst of wintry nights.

Jan. 20-23. The only time of the year that you find the desks emptied and the books free from cob-webs . . . EXAMS.

Jan. 27-29. Father Raymond Kennedy's three days' stay was all too short after everyone got acquainted. He made an impression not likely to be forgotten. Things certainly were dull for a long while after he left.

Jan. 30. Sister Benita did her mid-year "exterminating."

Feb. 3. Epidemic of German measles hit the Seniors—5th column work?

Feb. 4. Cards drop tough game to St. Benedict's Prep.

Feb. 13. The girls' team won their closest and most thrilling game with St. Mary's of South Amboy, 35-34.

Feb. 18. Cards gain revenge on St. Mary's S. A., 20-16.

Feb. 20. Senior girls receive job-hunting advice from Mrs. Chivareux—Where are the jobs?

Feb. 21. St. Benedict's Prep bows to Cards in return match.

Mar. 2. Cards open tourney with victory over St. Patrick's of Elizabeth in extra-period game.

Mar. 4. Seniors are given an exam by Dr. Starr of N. J. C.

Mar. 12. Win over St. Mary's S. A. brings Cards a step nearer the finals, 20-15.

Mar. 14. After putting up a game fight the Cards lose in finals to St. Michael's, Union City.

Mar. 25. The world of fashion designers know where to get its models after the recent fashion show. Professionals couldn't have done better.

Mar. 31. Supervisors arrive . . . That studious look comes back again to everyone's face.

April 3. Supervisors leave—Easy breathing again.

April 8. Father Cox presented trophy to team, and the captain was too shy to speak!

April 9. Easter Vacation.

April 24. Athletic Banquet . . . Even the measles couldn't keep Walt from getting his trophy.

April 29. Freshmen and P. T. A. put over show in a big way. They might be "green" but they certainly can act.

May 9. Senior Prom Lights were dimmed (but the hostesses were there).

May 12. Mother and Daughter Banquet—Eat, drink, and be merry for—you paid for it.

May 20. Frosh Dance always seems to be a drawing card—We had the same when we were "Green."

May 31. Time to dust off the books for our last try—Final Exams.

June 2. Field Day . . . Where's my lunch?

June 10. Class Night . . . Who makes up the boners . . . It's all in fun.

June 15. Communion Breakfast. Together in a body for the last time before graduation this evening.

June 15. The end of our journey through high school has come, and though we may stray far from the portals of our Alma Mater let us keep the memories of our happy, carefree years under her watchful guidance.

THE CLASS WILL

WE, the Seniors of St. Peter's High School, class of '41, renowned and distinguished, which fact in itself is proof of insanity, still keen and alert after four years of mental strain, hereby declare this to be our last will and testament, do bequeath:

To Monsignor Peter J. Hart: our sincerest gratitude for the guidance offered us during our four years thus enabling us to attain our final goal.

To Reverend Eugene Davis, Reverend Francis Nolan, Reverend William Yahner: our appreciation for their unfailing help and enlightenment in both major and trivial matters.

To Sister Mary Benita, our principal: the largest portion of our hearts to store all of her ever ready advice toward setting us on the straight course to our future careers.

To the Faculty: our thanks for successfully piloting our long but happy journey through four years of study.

To Mr. Murphy: the fondest hope that in the coming years Eugene "Butch" Murphy will help him share honors in the victories over N. B. H. S.

To the Juniors: our best wishes for success, and our hope that school spirit will be the predominant feature in all their undertakings.

To the Sophomores: a warning—"Never say die."

To the Freshmen: an earnest desire that their four years at St. Peter's may be as eventful and as enjoyable as were ours.

To the Latin students: a "trot", and our deepest sympathy.

To the French scholars: a bottle of ephedrine, and a donation of five dollars with which to buy more.

To the athletes: our best wishes for success.

Our personal endowments are as follows:

To the next class to occupy 12-B, the present Seniors give the cold temperature and the little mouse. "Don't let him scare you."

To Robert Dowgin, George Bubnis gives his smooth talk and persuasive personallity.

To Kay Staudt, we give Betty O'Donnell's attendance at 8:15 Mass.

To Chris Condon, Martin Bradshaw gives his ability to look peaceful, contented and rested under any circumstances.

To Art O'toole, Ray Criss gives his ready smile and his "come-hither" ties.

To anyone who is willing to take them, Peggy Dwyer gives her various accents.

To Al Merolla, we give Geza Kuczma's all-around manly charm.

To Eileen La Forge, we give Pat Power's "Personality Plus" to add to her own.

To Charles Clark, Dan Ellison gives his jokes and "happy-go-lucky" spirit.

To James Finnegan, we give Frank Fielder's lonely blush and strong silence.

To the orchestra's next piano player, Mary Orban gives her all.

To Anyone whose father owns a confectionery store, Alma Dughi gives her ability to make banana splits.

To Agnes Oughton, Julia Gerencser's silence.

To Jane Cahill, Eleanor Maroon's competent managership.

To Sam Wiley, Joe Duffy's smallness.

To Margaret Cassino, Dorothy Eick's disposition.

To "Bud" Carney, Jim McCourt's bashfulness.

To Joe Malanaphy, Gerard Tellier's dancing feet.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereto subscribed our names and affixed our seal, this tenth day of June, in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and forty-one.

ONE LAMP STILL BURNING

RUTH CARLIN
District Winner of the American Legion Oratorical Contest

WE are here to reaffirm our faith in a way of lite—the American Way—the way guaranteed us by our Constitution and our Bill of Rights.

These two American institutions have stood the test of time, of war and even of internal strife. They have assured to us the most perfect form of government yet conceived by man. They have preserved for us a mode of living from which every thoughtful American is loathe to depart.

But are we thoughtful Americans? Does this Constitution mean anything to you or to me? To me the Bill of Rights means freedom—freedom from compulsion in the exercise of my free will, freedom to reach for happiness and success. It gives me, moreover, a sense of security. For I know that under our Constitution and Bill of Rights, this land will remain free—, that no tyranny shall oppress me as long as they continue to be the Law of the Land.

What does this Bill of Rights mean to you? It means that your country may never deny you your God-given rights. As Thomas Jefferson once wrote, "A Bill of Rights is what the people are entitled to against every government on earth."

If we put into effect the principles set forth in the Bill of Rights, the differences of race, creed or color should have no influence on the opportunities of the individual. In this day of renewed Americanism we should strive to insure these rights to our fellow man even though his opinions on matters of politics or religion conflict with ours. That respect for sincere differences is a part of true Americanism.

We must realize that the unity of the American people was attained only under the Bill of Rights. Two weeks ago, when New York celebrated her first Bill of Rights Week, Colonel Theodore Roosevelt said of our Bill of Rights, "It is a tie that binds together 130 million Americans in a unity that no dictator could ever achieve through storm troopers, concentration camps or the fury of demagogic tirades." Thus we should realize that the Bill of Rights is the best safeguard against all the forces now threatening democracy. It is the surest bulwark against internal hatred and dissension through which alone America could fall. Our Bill of Rights is truly a lamp of liberty, a beacon of patriotism shining in a war torn world.

In order to really appreciate the blessings which are ours under the Bill of Rights, let us imagine that we no longer possess it. With this lamp of liberty extinguished, our world would be a world of darkness. With freedom abolished, meetings such as this one would be forbidden. The American Legion which is sponsoring this program tonight would no longer function. If it did it would only function as part of a vast army-goose stepping behind a dictator. Many of you belong to fraternal organizations or lodges. In a totalitarian state the Gestapo would swiftly crush out all such groups. In their place the dictator would substitute huge party meetings where you would be forced to shout his praises.

Last Sunday many of you went to church. Next Sunday you will attend again. Your church will be of your own choice. In some countries you could not worship—for religion is persecuted, either directly or in secret, because it is a recognition of a power greater than a totalitarian state. Those who wished to remain true to their belief that God is supreme would be thrown into concentration camps.

The press and radio which now have a guarantee of freedom in the Bill of Rights, would be controlled entirely by the State. They would become the instruments for mental enslavement to false ideas.

We could not criticize a dictator as we now can criticize our own leaders, nor could we hold open political discussions. If we disagreed with the State we might face a firing squad.

"It can't happen here!" You say. Let the Constitution be destroyed, let the Bill of Rights be abolished, and these nightmare suppositions will become a reality. And yet if America shirks her responsibilities, which democratic rights imply, she will deserve such a fate.

In many nations of Europe the injustices I recounted have triumphed. Darkness has enveloped that continent. Yet one lamp keeps burning for the world. That is our Constitution and Our Bill of Rights.

Thus we must play a part in this world of darkness. Since we hold the last lamp we must keep it burning for a storm-tossed world. For in the darkness the vision of freedom has been lost. The belief in man's personal dignity, in his free will has been weakened. That is why we must practice in our daily lives the principles of freedom declared in the Bill of Rights. We must preserve them for the future. It is up to us to determine whether men and women may keep their right to think, to speak, to work, or to worship as they please. It is up to us, the American people, to decide the future. Shall our children be born into a world where they have lost their right to exercise their free will? Shall they be born into a world without a chance for finding happiness or success? Or shall they retain the right to freedom which our fathers and our forefathers fought to preserve for us?

The principles of human freedom are in our hands. That is our great responsibility. But how are we to carry out this responsibility? First, the private citizen must again make Democracy a personal cause. He must believe in our government. He must contribute his share to the cause of freedom if he wishes it to survive. He must learn to use his rights wisely in order that he may not infringe on the equal rights of others. Next, each and every American should consider it a duty to study the fundamental basis of our government—the Constitution and the Bill of Rights. With such a knowledge, his love for America will increase. His appreciation of the nation's freedom will be enriched. Lastly, the entire nation must become more united. Let us cast off our exterior appearance of dissension. Let us show the dictators that every American mind and every American heart has but one thought—the preservation of our Union. Dictators even now are ready and waiting to fall upon all disunited peoples. The doctrines of Communism, Naziism and Fascism are trying to extinguish all lamps of democracy. These totalitarian powers are trying to establish their philosophy of government in our land. They forget that we do not need a new government in our land. They forget that we do not need a new ism. We have our own philosophy and that is Americanism. With all America believing in Americanism we will be a united people. No dictator would dare defy a truly united America. With Americanism our lamp of freedom will never be blotted out. With this thought in mind let us be strengthened in our faith in this country. Let us be firm in the belief that our system of government will endure. It can and will endure if every man and every woman, every boy and every girl works in order to preserve and maintain that heritage which was given to us a century and a half ago.

Patriotism is not for the few or for those with special privileges. It is the obligation of every citizen. Patriotism is a debt of social justice which every citizen owes to his government in return for the many benefits it confers upon him. Only when we rededicate our thoughts and our actions to that patriotism can we be truly called Americans. Yes, we do have a lamp of freedom burning. Into our hands has been given the task and the obligation of seeing that nothing happens to dim that light, nothing is ever permitted to take place in this land which would cause that lamp to go out.

May we keep our lamp of freedom and democracy still burning by saying, as did President Roosevelt in a recent message to Winston Churchill, the Prime Minister of Great Britain,

"Sail on, O Ship of State!
Sail on, O Union, strong and great!
With Humanity with all its fears,
With all the hopes of future years,
Is hanging breathless on thy fate."

With that as our pledge, with that as our desire there will always be in our land a lamp still burning.

Farewell

On the earth, not far away,
A beautiful tree stands high;
And many, many boughs she spreads
That birds might in them fly.

Away up high, almost the top
Two CARDINAL Birds are perched.
A nest is on a bough below
There three little Cardinals chirped.

They are very happy living here
Amid the tree's protecting branches,
The little birds, so gorgeously red,
Do not know earth's evil chances.

Then came a day, a beautiful day.
Twas right in the middle of June.
The branch "that was high, almost the top."
Had rotted and fell to its doom.

The three little Cardinals are still in the tree
And ready to live on their own.
But the wise old Cardinals have flown away
Searching the skies—alone.

L'ENVOI

The Hand of God would be the tree.
At His will the bough fell down.
The branches were our Nuns and Priests
Who spread their guidance 'round.

To the Cardinals left in that big tree
We leave—our treasured halls.
Keep them as the Seniors have
Until your bough breaks and falls.

Our Closing Chapter

We are closing a chapter
Of study, fun and laughter.
Within—thoughts of years;
Some of smiles; some of tears.

Our prayers ascend, now, to our God
That He will rule the path we trod.
So we the class of '41
Bid adieu in the setting sun.

—MARIANNE WALZ

Night Prayer

Dear God, when this day ends,
Shower blessings on my friends.

Guide me through the peerless night,
Plan for me a future bright.

Bring Thy peace to weary earth,
The peace prevailing at Thy Birth.

Release the holy souls that burn,
To heaven's gates their footsteps turn.

Provide and aid the suffering poor,
Let not an angel miss a door.

Bless my parents generously,
They have done so much for me.

Enlighten me upon life's way
To persevere in love I pray.

Give courage to the weakened one,
That his work be left well-done.

Send health and strength to all that ail,
With fortitude, they cannot fail.

Bless our Church, our Faith, our Pope,
With faith, with charity and with hope.

Then last of all I beg of you,
To keep this servant pure and true.

The Green Nemesis

In my twelfth year I had a little list,
Reminding me of all the books I'd missed.
From gaunt October with Loyal Foe,
To May with long-nosed Cyrano,
This thought was always mine—
Sister didn't like my line.

"I'm sorry, teacher, but can't you see
This book report is all new to me?
You must have assigned it the very day
The dentist looked after my tooth's decay."

"Yes, little boy, but you have many a friend,
Who assignment notes, would eagerly lend."
All I could gasp was a recentful, "Gee!"
And on my report card I found a red "D."

—JOHN A. LYONS

FACE THE MUSIC

WITH dimmed houselights, an audience hushed, a brief overture, a slowly dividing curtain, once again the dramatic talent of St. Peter's was on display. On October 27-28, under the able direction of Mr. Lehr M. Knowles, the musical comedy "Face the Music" was presented.

Students entered whole-heartedly into the production. All should be complimented for their excellent cooperation. Nothing was too difficult to master in order to gain that end. Surely this play has measured up to the preview plays given here. We are one in agreeing that the future will have to produce exceptional actors in order to surpass the work of this year's dramatics.

MECHANICAL DRAWING

THIS year fifteen students eager to better themselves in the Universal Language entered the Mechanical Drawing Class. Under the careful and enlightening instructions of Mr. Nugey, a Consulting Engineer of Rahway, this handful of enterprising enthusiasts turned out the best drawings ever made. Mr. Nugey first taught the essentials of drawing and then in successive steps prepared us for making original projects. Though class was held only once a week, we are now able to compete with anyone who has had Mechanical Drawing daily for the past four years.

To Mr. Nugey we owe a debt of gratitude for his kind interest and direction. He is sincerely and deeply respected. The generous sacrifices and kindness that both he and Mrs. Nugey have rendered to St. Peter's will never be forgotten.

FOOTBALL SQUAD

WHEN the football season commenced, Coach "Bud" Murphy picked up the remnants of last year's squad, and, eating, sleeping, talking football, he turned out a team that most coaches dream about as shown by the record.

Our opening game with New Brunswick High marked the dedication of the new Municipal Stadium of New Brunswick. On that evening of September 20, the much stronger Zebras were expected to romp all over the smaller and lighter Cardinals. Well, the Cards with the sparkling offensive play of Mark Maurer, Johnny Rulewich, Moe Nycz, their backfield aces, gave the stands the greatest thrill of their lives. The whole team gave the highly vaunted Zebras the heartbreak of the season when the little men "who should not have been there" held N. B. H. S. to a single field goal and a score 3-0!

The Cards left New Brunswick for Providence, R. I. where they met La Salle Academy, a school of 1700 boys. With that "never-say-die" spirit our team fought along holding the Rhode Island Champions to a 13-7 score.

In the weeks that followed the boys defended their state title by defeating Good Counsel, Holy Spirit and most important, St. Cecilia's who had been undefeated through two seasons and who expected to take over St. Peter's without a struggle. The score: St. Peter's 7, St. Cecilia's 0. St. Mary's Rutherford and St. Rose of Belmar were also among "the Indian who bit the dust." The crowning victory came on that ever memorable Sunday when the Cards met Perth Amboy Catholic. Both teams had been undefeated in Catholic competition. It was "nip and tuck" from the first to the last second of that game. We won 7-6 and the State title for Group II came to St. Peter's.

And, so, good bye and good luck to the entire squad but most especially to those of the Class of '41.

COACH MURPHY

OUR TROPHIES

BASKETBALL

VINCENT REAGAN, a young man just out of high school, faced the gigantic task of filling the shoes of Anthony Sutton, a man who had twice been chosen "the Coach of Coaches" at the Eastern States' Catholic Tournament. Our records show that Coach Reagan filled those shoes nobly.

The team, beginning the season with only two members of last year's regular squad, expected no more than a semi-successful season. However, the Cardinals came through with fourteen wins and only six losses. Their captain, Jimmy McCourt, who, though not ranking among the top scorers, was the best defensive player on the floor, held the boys together with his strong fighting spirit.

Opening the season against a superior Seton Hall Prep., the Petreans suffered their first defeat. Then came a see-saw record of gains and losses until the Cardinals went on an eight game winning streak and a new star was born in the person of Johnny Richmond. Beginning with Good Counsel, the Petreans conquered Red Bank and Perth Amboy Catholic, in which the combined efforts of Richmond and Bishop brought the boys a victory over rivals of long-standing. These were followed by St. Mary's of South Amboy, St. Benedict's Prep and Good Counsel. Among those wins, the most coveted was that over St. Benedict's Prep 40-39. The team, by defeating St. Patrick's, Elizabeth, and St. Mary's, South Amboy, went into the last leg of the Catholic Tournament only to lose to St. Michael's, Union City.

TRACK

KRULL

BECAUSE of lack of material Steve Puglisi, Coach of St. Peter's Track team, had to develop a new team. Workouts for aspiring trackmen began early in March.

The team started off the season with a bang by tieing Saint Al's for second place in the N. J. C. S. A. D. Meet.

The century and furlong will be negotiated by Johnny Moran, one of the three veteran lettermen to return. Johnny ran up 103¼ points for the Cards last year.

Phil Rich, another veteran letterman, will take charge of the running of the four-forty. Middle distances are to be filled with new blood, Iggi McLaughlin, Ed Kearny, and Red Godrey.

"Swiftly" Swift, the Catholic State Champ, in the long event of the meets will pound out the mile grind.

The field events have Al Gerencser, Nick Korsak, and Frank Russo at the weights and Robert Murphy and Moran at the broad jump.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

THE Girls' Basketball Team has just enjoyed one of its most successful seasons. Our well-balanced team, coached by Steve Puglisi, faced the beginning of the season with the highest hopes and prospects.

The first game with the Alumni found our sextet on top with a 20-16 score. Following this triumph, the first bitter pill of defeat came with St. Al's of Jersey City. In rapid succession came a six-string victory, broken only by our first foe. The season closed with our defeat at the hands of Cathedral, a nip-and-tuck battle for a 17-21 score.

The Girls' team chalked up seven victories for St. Peter's. This is an excellent record gained by another typical CARDINAL Team.

(OPP. LIVINGSTON AVE.) NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J.

We renew 99% of our contracts . . .

THAT, to us, is the very bed-rock of our existence. It is in itself proof that we have, year after year, rendered the EXTRA service and quality of workmanship which, above all else, gains an organization the reputation of reliability.

In your lives, the careers now just beginning; to fill your contracted obligations . . . you have them, you know, to your families, your friends, your country, and to yourselves . . . just to fill these obligations is not enough. To give more than is expected of you is the answer to success in your jobs, your business and your lives.

We know that you, young Americans, will recognize this truth. We feel certain that through your lives you too will "renew 99% of your contracts."
